

2019 Dixie Crow Symposium 44

Registration Instructions

Registration for the 2019 Dixie Crow Symposium 44 can be accomplished by following one of the three scenarios detailed on the following pages. For those only participating in the golf events go to scenario 3 on page 16.

Scenario 1 - Attend the symposium and exhibit hall only

If you plan to only attend the symposium and exhibit hall, you can register by completing a single form, and then verifying the email address used to create your website username. If you do not verify your email address, you are not officially registered for the symposium. Details about the symposium can be found at the following link.

<https://www.dixiecrowsymposium.com/2019-Dixie-Crow-Symposium/Symposium-Details>

After reviewing the symposium details, you can register to attend the symposium at this link.

<https://www.dixiecrowsymposium.com/2019-Symposium-Attendee-Registration>

Correctly entering your email address is the most vital step in registration. So be sure to double check your email address. A link to the terms of agreement and privacy policies for the site are located at the bottom of the registration form. You will need to signify acceptance of those by following the instructions provided. Once you accept the terms and privacy policy, the REGISTER button will be displayed. Once your registration is submitted, two events will occur. First, you will be redirected to the registration submission confirmation page that will include the following information.

Registration Confirmation

Well done! You have successfully submitted your registration form. However, your registration is not complete until you verify your email address using the link in the email that was sent to you. If you don't verify your email address, then you are not officially registered for the symposium. If you don't receive the email in the next few hours, check your spam folder to make sure it didn't get listed as spam. If it is in the spam folder, you will need to mark the message as Not Spam and then whitelist dixiecrowsymposium@gmail.com. You can learn about whitelisting for your mail client here. If you experience any issues and need to contact the website administrator, you can find contact information here. We also recommend that you bookmark the contact page for future reference.

Respectfully,

Your 2019 Dixie Crow Symposium Committee

Second an email will be sent to the email address you used to register with further instructions. Attached to that email will be a PDF that includes all of the information you used to register for the site. Within the mail is a link as can be seen by the red arrow below. You can either click the link, or alternatively right-click and copy the link and then paste it into a browser window.

Email Verification is Required

Thank you Maj Gen Jaimie Hawthorne Jr. for submitting your registration for the 2019 Dixie Crow Symposium. Your registration details, including your username (email address), are found in the PDF that can be accessed by a link at the bottom of this email. If there are any blank rows, it means you did not provide a response. Please review your registration information for accuracy and save a copy to your computer. To complete your registration you must first use the link below to verify your email address.

If the account verification link below doesn't work directly, just copy and paste it into a browser window.

https://www.dixiecrowsymposium.com/Verify-Account?param=dixie_crowtest@gmail.com&SPost=True

If you have any issues with the verification process, send an email with details describing the problem to dixiecrowsymposium@gmail.com.

CRITICAL NOTE

The email verification process requires two steps. The first is to attempt to verify the email address, and the second is to redirect you to either the Account Verified or Account Verification Failed page. On a typical network, the verification step is transparent to the user, as the redirect happens before the verification page actually displays. However, if you are registering from a slower network, as it typically the case at Robins AFB, you may see the following page. It is imperative that you do not close this page. The initial popup in the white box will go away after about 10 seconds. Be patient and wait for the redirect to occur. If after a few minutes the redirect has not occurred, you can follow the instructions on the page and make an attempt to login to the site.

DO NOT CLOSE THIS PAGE.
Your account is being verified and you should be redirected momentarily.
It could be possible that you arrived on this page after attempting to verify your account on a slow network. If that is the case, you can attempt to login here using the username (email) and password you registered with. If you cannot login, contact the website administrator here..

Do Not Close This Page.
Your account is being verified.
If you are not redirected to the the Account Verification page, contact the webmaster at dixiecrowsymposium@gmail.com.

If the redirect does occur, you will then be directed to one of two pages. If your account was correctly verified, you will see the following message. If you are only attending the symposium and exhibit hall your registration is complete. If you need to register for any of the symposium events follow the directions in section 2 below.

Account Verified

Well done! If your account exists, it has been authorized for use on this site! You can login and register for symposium events here.

If there was an issue verifying your email address, you will see the following message and should attempt to login to the site and if that fails contact the website administrator at dixiecrowsymposium@gmail.com.

Account Verification Failed

Oh snap! Apparently something went wrong. It could be possible that you arrived on this page after attempting to verify your account on a slow network. If that is the case, you can attempt to login here using the username (email) and password you registered with. If you cannot login, contact the website administrator here..

To summarize, there are two steps if you only plan to attend the symposium and require none of the paid items.

1. Complete the registration form <https://www.dixiecrowsymposium.com/2019-Symposium-Attendee-Registration>
2. Verify the email address you used when registering.

Scenario 2 - Attend the symposium and register for paid items

If you plan to attend the symposium and register for paid event items, you will first follow scenario 1 above to complete your symposium registration. After verifying your email address you can login to the site using your email address and the password you selected for the site. If you forget your password, there is a password reminder on the login page. Paid items include symposium sponsorship, purchasing a booth in the exhibit hall, purchasing tickets and / or a table(s) for the banquet, registering for the golf tournament and / or sports banquet, and finally signing up as a golf hole sponsor.

You can login using the link on the Account Verified page, or come back later and use the login at the top right of the site.

Account Verified
