DIXIE CROW SYMPOSIUM 36
20 – 24 March 2011
Museum of Aviation, Robins AFB, Georgia

The Dixie Crow Chapter of the Association of Old Crows is hosting the 36th Annual Dixie Crow Symposium to raise money for local scholarship programs. The annual symposium benefits local students and has raised over $615,000 for student scholarships in the Middle Georgia area. This year's theme is "Electronic Warfare – Shaping America's Defense".

The Hospitality Suite kicks off the week's events on Sunday evening in the Marriott Courtyard Hotel in Warner Robins. The golf tournament begins Monday morning at The Landings Golf Club and will be followed with a wonderful BBQ dinner. Our Symposium starts with the Plenary Session at 0800 Tuesday morning with the Exhibit Hall opening at 1100. The Dixie Crows will host the Exhibitor's Reception in the Century of Flight Hanger Tuesday evening and our annual banquet will take place Wednesday evening. Electronic Warfare short course and Program Management and Logistics short courses will be held Thursday in the Museum of Aviation Eagle Building.

Registration

Registration to attend the Technical Sessions and the Exhibit Hall is FREE to all who register prior to 4 March 2011. The Individual registration form is the preferred method to register and is required for anyone planning to participate in the golf tournament, the Sports Banquet, or the Annual Dinner Banquet. The Group registration is useful for registering groups to attend only the Technical Sessions and Exhibit Hall. The Group registration form is available on the Dixie Crow website. Badges may be obtained at the registration desk during the following hours:

Marriott Courtyard Hotel:	Sunday	1700 - 2100
Landings Golf Club:	Monday	0800 - 1600
Museum of Aviation Exhibit Hall:	Tuesday	0800 - 1700
Museum of Aviation Exhibit Hall:	Wednesday	0800 - 1200

See the registration form for the late fee and refund policy.

Security Clearances

A US security clearance is required for all classified technical briefings and the EW Short courses. All personnel requesting access to classified presentations or the MSIC van must complete a visit request specifically for the Dixie Crow Symposium. The only exception is for Government employees carrying picture badges for Robins AFB Buildings 229 and 231. Briefings may be classified up to SECRET. Forward all visit requests via JPAS using SMO Code - RX1MFPTK6. If your company or organization does not have access to JPAS, mail a visit request to the Dixie Crow Chapter, P.O. Box 1331, Warner Robins, GA, 31099-1331, ATTN: Symposium Registration Committee or fax to WR-ALC/GROCS (Security) at (478)926-7894. The Dixie Crow security form is available on the Dixie Crow website. The Symposium visit request only allows access related to the Dixie Crow Symposium and will not be valid for visiting any other facility on Robins AFB. Visit requests must be received by 4 March 2011.

Host Hotel Information

We are pleased to announce the Marriott Courtyard Hotel as our Host Hotel for this year's symposium. The Marriott Courtyard Hotel will welcome visitors to the Dixie Crow Symposium March 19 thru 25, 2011. The Marriott Courtyard Hotel is located at 589 Carl Vinson Parkway, Warner Robins, Georgia 31088 approximately 5.5 miles East of Interstate 75, and 4.5 miles West of Robins AFB. For information on room reservations please call the Marriott Courtyard Hotel at 478-602-6200, or visit our website, select the Symposium page and click on the Marriott Courtyard Hotel link. Ask for the Dixie Crow Symposium Rate when making reservations to ensure the lowest rates.

Dixie Crow Hospitality Suite

The Hospitality Suite at the Marriott Courtyard Hotel will be open Sunday night (1700 - 2200) to all Symposium participants. Registration badge is required for admission into the Hospitality Suite.

DIXIE CROW SYMPOSIUM 36
20 – 24 March 2011
Museum of Aviation, Robins AFB, Georgia

Golf Tournament And Sports Dinner

The Golf Tournament will be held on Monday March 21st at the Landings Golf Course, 309 Stathams Way, Warner Robins, GA (in Statham's Landing subdivision). Soft spikes are required on the golf course. The tournament will feature a handicap scramble format with morning and afternoon tee times. Golf fee includes golf carts, green fees, range balls, breakfast or lunch, and refreshments on the course. Golf awards will be presented after the second round at the Sports Banquet in the Landings Clubhouse. Tickets for the Sports Banquet are $15 and must be purchased separately. From Robins Museum of Aviation, travel South on HWY 247 approximately 1.1 miles, turn left on Old Hawkinsville Road for 0.3 miles then left into Stathams Landing. The Golf Course is located on the left, approximately 1.2 miles.

Dixie Crow Exhibitor Reception

A reception for all Symposium registrants will be held on Tuesday evening 1700 - 1900 in the Museum of Aviation Exhibit Hall. The reception provides a networking opportunity to all Symposium registrants and Robins AFB personnel. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring an HR representative or company recruiting materials and be prepared to facilitate discussions with our Scholarship recipients. Symposium registration badges or VIP invitations are required for admittance to Exhibit Hall.

Symposium Dinner Banquet

The Symposium Dinner Banquet is scheduled for Wednesday evening, March 23rd at the Air Force Museum, Hangar One. There is no reserved seating except at the head tables. Tickets for the Annual Dinner Banquet are $35.00.

Technical Sessions

This year's technical sessions focus on the theme of "Electronic Warfare – Shaping America's Defense". Due to the ever changing landscape in the battlefield, Electronic Warfare is taking an increasing role in providing for defense of our soldiers, airmen, sailors, and marines. With the advent of sophisticated capabilities to provide awareness of the changes in the electromagnetic spectrum, the modern Warfighter has come to depend on advances in a wide range of Electronic Warfare to shape their capabilities. The technical sessions will provide an opportunity to hear about these advances from leaders in the field of Electronic Warfare. The sessions will be held in the Museum of Aviation Vista Scope Theater located in the Eagle Building beginning at 0800 on Tuesday and will run through 1630 on Wednesday. Some of the presentations may be classified up to SECRET. For specific information on the presentations, please refer to the Technical Session agenda available on the Dixie Crow website. The agenda will be available during the Symposium on signs located in the lobby and as a handout at the registration desk.

EW and Management Short Courses

The EW and Management short courses will be offered Thursday from 0800 until 1700. The schedule will be available on the Dixie Crow website and posted in the Museum of Aviation. Presentations are subject to change. These courses are provided free of charge to registrants. Continuing Education Credit will be available to those Civil Service Employees who attend all sessions of either the Electronic Warfare courses or Management courses.

Electronic Warfare courses will be presented in the Museum of Aviation Vista Scope Theater. These informative presentations will focus on technical topics of interest in today's environment and may be classified up to SECRET. Refer to the Security section for details on required documentation.

Management and Logistics courses will be offered in the Museum of Aviation Eagle Conference room (3rd floor). These courses will be unclassified and provide timely topics in program management and logistics.
